

Resources: BOOKS!

Linguistics TA Training Workshop

2008–2009

In John Rickford’s office...

- “Assessment in Practice: Putting Principles to Work on College Campuses” by Banta et al.
- “What the Use of Lectures?” by Bligh
- “Seven Decisions when Teaching Students” by Bligh et al.
- “Education for Judgment: The Artistry of Discussion Leadership” edited by Christensen et al.
- “Tools for Teaching” by Davis
- “The Art and Craft of Teaching” edited by Gullette
- “The Art & Craft of College Teaching: A Guide for New Professors & Graduate Students” by Rotenberg
- “Improving Teaching Higher Education” from University Teaching Methods Unit

In Lauren Hall-Lew’s office...

- “Teaching Academic Writing: A Toolkit for Higher Education,” by Coffin et al.
- “The Writing Teacher’s Sourcebook,” 4th ed., by Corbett et al.
- “The Professional Development of Graduate Teaching Assistants” by Marincovich et al.
- “The Elements of Style,” 4th ed., by Strunk & White

In the computer cluster, below the mailboxes...

- “Teaching at Stanford: An Introductory Handbook for Faculty, Academic Staff-Teaching, and Teaching Assistants” from CTL
- “First Day to Final Grade: A Graduate Student’s Guide to Teaching” by Cruzan & Damour
- “Creating a Teaching Profile” by Gibbs
- “The Professional Development of Graduate Teaching Assistants” by Marincovich et al.
- “Teaching Matters: Skills and Strategies for International Teaching Assistants” by Pica et al.
- “The Elements of Style,” 4th ed., by Strunk & White

- PLUS, lots of introductory linguistics textbooks on various subjects with example problem sets and homework assignment ideas!